

General Scheduling Order

Revision Effective June 1, 2020

COUNTY CRIMINAL
COURT AT LAW # 8
HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

The Court schedules each case using four-letter codes instructing counsel what must be completed in advance of the date associated with that code. For every case pending in this Court, the following schedule applies unless otherwise ordered:

Date Type	Description	Default Reset	Appear in Court?
PTIH	If the State wishes to enter into a pretrial intervention program authorized by Section 76.011 of the Government Code, a proposed order seeking fee payments under Section 102.012 of the Code of Criminal Procedure must be filed by this date. When probable cause has not been previously found, by this date the State must file any additional support for probable cause. By this date, the Defendant must file: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Demand for speedy trial or waiver of speedy trial rights.- Any request to modify bond conditions.	60 days NTRL	No
NTRL	By this date, the State must file: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- List of released discovery. Tex. Code Crim. Proc. art 39.14(j).- Disclosure of Tex. Code Crim. Proc. art 39.14(b) material. By this date, either party must file: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Any applications for depositions. Tex. Code Crim. Proc. art 39.02.	60 days DISP	No
DISP	By this date, the State must file: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Announcement of Ready or Not Ready for trial.- Proposed trial exhibit list. By this date, the Defendant must file: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Announcement of Ready or Not Ready for Trial.- Disclosure of Tex. Code Crim. Proc. art 39.14(b) material.	If parties ready: 30 days PTCR	No
PTCR	By this date, both parties must file either a request for interpreters for trial, or a statement that no interpreter is necessary for trial.	If case ready to be set: JTRL or CTRL Otherwise: PTMO	Only lawyers
PTMO	Hearing under Article 28.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.	JTRL or CTRL	Defendant and Lawyers

Judge Franklin Bynum 5/29/20