Additional Due Process and Procedural Requirements

Discovery Disputes

Parties must make several attempts on separate days to conference with opposing parties relating to discovery disputes and include a certificate of conference in their motion. All certificates of conference must state whether counsel have conferred regarding the substance of the relief requested and if the relief is opposed, agreed or agreed in part, along with a statement of what relief was agreed to between the parties. It must also state the number of attempts made to contact the opposing party, the method of attempts, and the results obtained. Insufficient attempts or failure to provide a substantive certificate may result in denial of the motion to compel or the hearing being passed by the Court.

Pre-Judgment Remedies

Pleadings requesting pre-judgment remedies (e.g., garnishment, attachment, sequestration) must be accompanied by verified facts and non-military affidavits in compliance with the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA)

Proposed orders should set out the amount of the bond calculated to protect the interests of the parties (both creditor and debtor), which should typically be the market value of any levied property. The bond amount for the debtor should merely be the amount owed if less than the market value.

Trial Dockets

Non-Jury Trials

Non-Jury trials are conducted Mondays beginning at 10:30 a.m. unless preferentially set. There are no docket positions for non-jury trials. Cases are heard based on the length of trial estimated by the parties. Parties should be prepared to proceed with trial on the date set and should furnish proposed orders to the Court. Trials estimated to last longer than 30 minutes will need to notify the Trial Coordinator upon check-in. The case will be reset to 1:00 p.m. the same afternoon, or for an agreed-upon date in the near future.

- Records are taken by request only. Fill out the Court Reporter's Request for Record prior to the hearing and must be E-filed.

Pursuant to Tex. Rules Civ. Proc. §509.8(e) and §510.10(c) Justice Court Appeals of Repair and Remedy and Eviction cases take precedence or are entitled to precedence in de novo appeals in the County Civil Courts at law and can be set for trial at any time after the eighth day following the filing of the transcript in the county court. Plaintiff should send trial setting notices to Defendant via certified mail, regular mail, and any electronic delivery address on file with the Court, with proof provided at trial.

Courtroom Expectations

- Check-in with Court Staff at least 10 minutes prior to docket start time.
- Notify Court staff if you need to step out and where so that you may be located if necessary.
- Follow proper Court decorum.

Jury Trials

Jury dockets are set on a two-week docket beginning on the first and third Monday of each month.

The date of trial will be determined at the pre-trial conference which will be held at 9:30 a.m. on the Friday preceding the trial date. In the event that Friday is a holiday or a dead week, the pretrial conference will be held the Friday preceding the holiday or dead week. Prior to the pre-trial conference, each party is ordered to exchange with all parties their witness list, pre-numbered exhibits, motion in limine, edited page and line excerpts of deposition testimony, proposed jury charge, questions, and instructions, and any relevant case law they may rely upon. Failure to mediate prior to pretrial and Failure to appear at pretrial will result in a dismissal for want of prosecution. Failure to appear at the pretrial conference will result in dismissal.

The Court appreciates all efforts to expedite the trial. The following must be exchanged and discussed among parties prior to pretrial:

- Witness List,
- Exhibit List and pre-marked Exhibits with numbers,
 - Agreed exhibits will be pre-admitted. Please bring a copy of the exhibits, tabbed in a three-ring binder, for the Judge, Court Reporter, and opposing counsel.

- Exhibits must be pre-marked, with numbers, with inadmissible information redacted (e.g., SSN, account number, and insurance information)
- Original exhibits will be retained by the Court Reporter at the time of trial, please bring copies for the Judge, witnesses, and opposing counsel. The Court will not make copies.
- Exhibits with multiple pages must be bound or stapled.
- If you have any questions regarding exhibits, please contact the Court Reporter
- Motion in Limine, exclude Texas Rules in this motion, Standing Order in Limine,
- Edited pages and line excerpts of deposition testimony, copies of designations, and a condensed or electronic copy of the transcript must be provided to the Court Reporter prior to trial,
- Proposed jury charge, questions, and instructions, Jury Charge Template
 - Each side must submit a copy of their proposed charge to the Trial Coordinator in Word format prior to trial, and;
- Any relevant case law that may be relied upon at trial.

Mediation is a required prior to docket call or pretrial. Failure to mediate may result in a dismissal..

Courtroom Expectations

- The Court will pull a panel of 18 jurors and 6 jurors will be selected. Each side gets 3 strikes.
- Prior to Voir Dire, the clerks will distribute one jury packet to each side and a seating chart. 15-20 minutes will be allotted per side for voir dire unless Court grants additional time.
- 10 minutes will be allowed for strikes, each side is entitled to three peremptory strikes. Any challenges for cause will be held at the bench on an individual basis.
- All proceedings will be on the record in a jury trial, with the exception of Voir Dire and Motions in Limine. Notify the Court Reporter in advance for the exceptions to be included on the record. Court Reporter's Request for Record
- Courtroom decorum should be explained to witnesses by counsel before entering the Courtroom.
- Post-verdict motions and opposed judgments must be set for a hearing on the oral hearing docket. See the Oral Hearing Dockets section of these procedures.

Continuance

Motions for Continuance should be filed as soon as the grounds for such a motion are reasonably apparent and filed at least two (2) weeks prior to the trial date.

First-time requests of a 30-day continuance that are uncontested, service is obtained or due diligence as to the attempts of service is stated, will be automatically granted. The motion must contain a certificate of service and a certificate of conference.

Continuances after the first will require a showing of good cause, a certificate of conference, and an oral or submission hearing.

Opposed Motions for Continuance must be scheduled for an oral or submission hearing.

Vacation Letters

To assert vacation, attorneys must file their vacation letter with the County Clerk and file a Motion for Continuance with the vacation letter attached and served to all parties. Attorneys with multiple cases must file a separate motion for each case.

The Court will honor Motions for Continuance with vacation letters that are timely filed.

Settlements

Upon settlement of any case, Plaintiff's counsel or self-represented (pro se) plaintiffs should immediately notify the Trial Coordinator in writing (i.e. email) and file a letter or notice of settlement in the case.

Cases that have announced settled and not submitted a final order, will be placed on the Entry Docket (no appearance necessary) within approximately 30 days to allow ample time for parties to submit final documents.

Submit a request in writing to move a case back to a trial docket.

Settlements involving minors must be heard by oral hearing. Please refer to the Motion Dockets section of these procedures for instructions regarding oral hearings. If a Guardian Ad Litem has not been appointed to represent the minor in the case, please file a Motion and Proposed Order or contact the Court. Cases in which the minor has a claim for disfigurement require the minor to appear at the hearing to show the injury.

Entry Docket

Entry dockets are a deadline to submit final orders to the Court. They are conducted without appearance Fridays at 10:00 a.m. The Court allows a one-time extension of Entry dates, any further requests will require an oral or submission hearing.

Final Judgments, Plaintiff's Non-Suit/Dismissal filed on or before the Entry date will be signed by the Court. If no judgment, order, or request for extension is filed, the case will be Dismissed for Want of Prosecution.

Judgments on jury verdicts with objections must be set on the oral hearing docket prior to the Entry date.

Service of Process

All cases are subject to Dismissal for Want of Prosecution if service is not perfected within 180 days of filing.

Courtroom Decorum

The same etiquette and decorum expected in a physical courtroom is expected in a virtual courtroom.

- Remove hats or caps, except religious hats or materials.
- Attorneys shall observe the letter and spirit of all canons of ethics and advise their clients of decorum.
- Pro-se parties are held to the same standard as attorneys.
- Cell phones must be silent and out of sight.
- No eating.
- No tobacco or vaping product use.
- No driving.

Compliance with Gov. Code 82.037(a)(4) will be expected from all counsel and self-represented (pro se) parties:
“Conduct oneself with integrity and civility in dealing and communicating with the Court and all parties.”
